KEYNOTE SPEAKER LINDSEY STETSON

Lindsey Stetson, a 5th generation Republican woman, can trace her conservative roots all the way back to Kansas where her great-grandmother made the trek west to California. Born in Southern California and raised in Ventura County, Lindsey learned early on the value of hard work and self-reliance, applying these conservative principles in her daily life. Then in 2004, Lindsey lived up to her family's Republican legacy by becoming a College Republican and began her long association with the California Republican Party.

Volunteering for multiple campaigns, Lindsey walked precincts, made phone calls, and stuffed envelopes as she supported candidates for local office. Recognized for her leadership skills, she was asked to serve as the Central Coast Field Representative for CAGOP.

She has twice served as a Republican county central committee Executive Director, both in Santa Barbara and Monterey, and during her tenure with the California Young Republicans, she was appointed to the state board. Honoring her Republican women roots, she joined the Republican Women Federated and served as 2nd Vice President with the Monterey Peninsula chapter. Lindsey has served as a member of Ventura County Central Committee since 2013, she now serves as the Second Vice Chair.

In 2012 she had the honor of being appointed as a delegate to the Republican National Convention. As a delegate to the California Republican Party since 2010, she currently serves on the Volunteer Organizations Committee, Rules Committee and Budget Committee. Lindsey was elected as CAGOP Central Coast Region Vice Chair in 2019 and re-elected at the CAGOP Organizing Convention this past February.

Lindsey resides in Ventura and works as a professional fundraiser focused on event fundraising, event planning and annual corporate giving. She is a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

STATE GOVERNMENT

BY ELENA MISHKANIAN CAMARILLO RECALL EFFORT

Many Californians are aware of the Gavin Newsom recall, but did you know that there is also a recall taking place in Camarillo to remove two City Council members? A group of concerned Camarillo residents have formed a grassroots effort to recall Camarillo City Council members Susan Santangelo and Shawn Mulchay. The basis of the recall effort is the council members' attempt to cause the City to endorse Black Lives Matter (BLM), which is an organization that is known to have been founded by trained Marxists who are committed to civil disobedience, and these 2 people are also pushing hard to defund their police department.

Santangelo posted a comment on her Facebook account earlier this year in which she said, "white people are all racists because this world and this country are systemically racist, and we are part of that system." In another statement, she unapologetically expressed her resentment towards people who voted for her saying, "you're all worried about the damn wall to keep out those criminal immigrants while the real killers are the white men walking among us." For a recall vote to take place, at least 20% of Camarillo's registered voters, or about 9,475 people, must sign the petition, and signatures must be collected by April 15th. The City Clerk said that estimates from Ventura County officials could put the cost of a special election to the City at about $220,000. However, if the recall vote regarding Governor Newsom takes place, the cost to the City should go down based on sharing the costs involved.

We are blessed as a nation that has the world's longest surviving written charter of government that contains the elements of a true democracy. People in foreign countries that are under dictatorial regimes would be willing to die for the same Democratic rights that we enjoy. Our freedom is the result of "government of the people, by the people, and for the people". We must always proudly stand strong to defend our core values those who would make statements and efforts to contradict the principles of democracy. For over two centuries our constitution has protected us, and now more than ever it is our duty to defend this great document. Those who take our freedom for granted, denigrate law enforcement personnel, and ignore their sacrifices must be held accountable for their actions.

"...the cost of a special election to the city at about $220,000."

The Camarillo Recall is a non-partisan effort that has attracted concerned Ventura County residents to donate and to volunteer. Residents are volunteering at the weekend booths outside at Trader Joe's, Vons, Ralphs, Sprouts, and the Farmers Market. Please go to www.camarillorecall.org.

for more information regarding volunteering and/or donating. Volunteers are needed to walk door-to-door and/or staff a booth to gather signatures for the petition. I think that many voters in Camarillo (whether Democrat or Republican) support the police, because, in general, people want safety in their neighborhoods. Although the residents from neighboring Ventura County cities cannot sign the petition, they have volunteered to push the recall forward.

Please follow on Facebook at www.facebook.com/CamarilloRecall.

GINNY BRYCE

BENEFITS FOR EX-PRESIDENTS

THEY RECEIVE A PENSION FOR LIFE

Former presidents receive a pension for life, which today is $210,700 per year. However, presidents who are impeached and removed from office lose their pension.

THEY ARE GUARDED BY THE SECRET SERVICE

Since 2013, former presidents get Secret Service protection for life. Prior to 2012, they lost their Secret Service protection after leaving office. Their children get Secret Service protection until they turn 16. Spouses lose their protection if the couple divorces and remarry.

THEIR OWN LIBRARY

Modern ex-presidents spend a lot of time on their presidential libraries. It was not always that way. In fact, the tradition started with Franklin D. Roosevelt, who envisioned the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum as a place to preserve his personal and presidential records. Before that, presidents simply packed up their records, and many were lost in the process. George Washington's nephew admitted the first president's documents had been "very extensively mutilated by rats and otherwise injured by damp." Planning, fundraising, and running the library can take up a lot of time. Some presidents, like Harry S. Truman, actually worked at their presidential library.

THEY AREN'T ALLOWED TO DRIVE

Because of security reasons, former presidents cannot drive on public roads. They are driven by their Secret Service teams. They can drive on their own property, as Ronald Reagan drove on his ranch.

THE SECRET SERVICE SCREENS ALL THEIR MAIL

The Secret Service receives all mail and packages at an off-site screening place, and they check all mail, to avoid dangerous packages sent to the former president.

THEY GET PAID STAFFERS, OFFICE SPACE, AND OFFICE SUPPLIES

The government pays for ex-presidents to have an office staff, with a budget of $150,000 per year for the first 30 months after leaving office. After that, the government foots the bill for $96,000 in staff expenses, and presidents can pay for any additional costs personally. A paid staff is not the only ex-presidential perk. They also receive compensation for office space and office supplies anywhere in the country.

THEY GET A HUGE TRAVEL BUDGET

Former presidents get a huge travel budget. They can receive up to $1 million in security and travel expenses each year, with an additional $500,000 for their spouse. The funds must be used for travel as an official representative of the US government.

THEY SPEND A SURPRISING AMOUNT OF TIME PLANNING THEIR FUNERAL

Former presidents can choose to have a state funeral. In fact, presidents must plan their funeral service while still in office, working with the Military District of Washington to design the event. Presidential funerals can include aircraft flyovers, gunfire salutes, and parades. The choreographed events typically last five days, and flags remain lowered around the country. Former presidents can also opt out of a state funeral.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATION UPDATE

PAM LINDEMAN LEGISLATION

The More We Know...

Please make sure that you read the Email Blasts sent by the Club entitled "Legislation Action Alert(s)" regarding the need to make phone calls to California Senators.

All of these Senators need to hear from us.

SB-5 HOUSING: BOND ACT:

Atkins, Caballero, McGuire, Roth, Ruben, Skinner, Wiener, (D) This bill would state the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would authorize the issuance of bonds and would require the proceeds from the sale of those bonds to be used to finance housing-related programs that serve the homeless and low and very low-income Californians.

AB-397 UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE: BENEFITS: DISQUALIFICATION: NOTICE:

Mayes (I), Chiu (D) This bill would require the department to provide the above-described notices for each successive disqualification for making a false statement or representation or withholding material facts before the director can extend the ineligibility period. Hmm...the CA EDD was recently reported as having given out $10 Billion in fraudulent unemployment claims.

AB-823 HIGH SPEED RAIL AUTHORITY: TRAINS POWERED BY FOSSIL FUEL COMBUSTION ENGINES:

Gray (D) This bill would prohibit the High-Speed Rail Authority from directly or indirectly using local, state, federal public or private funding to purchase/lease or operate a passenger/freight train powered by diesel engine or other type of fossil fuel combustion engine and from enabling such a train to operate on Authority-owned rail infrastructure designed for speeds in excess of 125 mph. NOTE: Congressman Costa (D) re-introduced HR 867-High Speed Rail Corridor Act legislation that would re-authorize $32 billion dollars to fund projects in federally designated high-speed rail corridors. This bill will directly assist in funding to complete California's High Speed Rail project through 2025.

AB-937 IMMIGRATION ENFORCEMENT:

(D) This bill would prohibit any state or local agency from arresting or facilitating the arrest, confinement, detention, transfer, interrogation, or deportation of an individual for an immigration enforcement purpose. Additionally, the bill would allow a person to bring action against a state or local agency or state or local official that violates these provisions.

Existing law requires all basic information stored in state or local criminal offender record information systems to include place of birth. This bill would no longer require that information to include place of birth. NOTE: This bill requires only a majority vote to pass. CONTACT your local Assemblyperson to express your opposition to this bill.

AB-76 INTER-DISTRICT TRANSFER OF PUPILS: PROHIBITION ON TRANSFERS BY A SCHOOL DISTRICT OR RESIDENCE: IN- PERSON INSTRUCTION:

Kiley (R) This bill will prohibit a school district from prohibiting the transfer of a pupil who is not receiving in-person instruction in a pupil's district to a school district that is offering in-person instruction. This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

SB-29 ELECTIONS: UPDATE:

No surprise that the bill THAT requires all registered voters in California to receive mail-in ballots for all elections held in 2021 PASSED in the legislature on 2/16/2021 and was approved by Governor Newsom on 2/19/2021.

GEORGE WILL ON CHURCHILL

On March 5th, the conservative columnist George F. Will gave the 34th Enid and R. Crosby Kemper Lecture on the 75th anniversary of Winston Churchill's "Sinews of Peace" speech at Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri. In that speech Churchill told America and the world what it did not want to hear: that an Iron Curtain had descended on Europe and the Cold War was upon us. Churchill taught timeless lessons about American power and its responsibilities as well as its limitations. He had learned that there are people in leadership that had little awareness of these limits.

George Will spoke with "Churchillian realism" reflecting on our history and foreseeable future. He reviewed the lessons of Vietnam which did not save us from our inappropriate interventions in Iraq and Afghanistan. He noted that the lessons of must be learned and maintained; perhaps because our leaders, unlike Churchill, are not "marinated in history". Quoting Margaret Thatcher, our nation was not made by history, but by philosophy, a national premise "...that the principles by which we live and that we espouse are explicitly universal." Will noted that the Constitution is our "civil religion". Churchill knew that America could not transfer this philosophy to other nations, or build other nations, which grow organically through their history. We must remember that nothing lasts; including our principles, unless "the only political things that last are the things that we work tirelessly to preserve." Freedom is not directly exportable; among nations and peoples there are many competing values and freedom is but one.

Mr. Will felt that Churchill today might have said that there is a democracy recession underway around the world, and that further conflict can be prevented by timely action. "What prevents timely action is unrealism. The human tendency to flinch from unpleasant facts." Americans in 1946 were tired of responsibilities abroad and discord at home. The subtext of Churchill's "Sinews of Peace" speech to America is that "for a great nation, for a great Republic, there is no rest, not now, not ever". Although George Will astutely reviewed Churchill's analysis of America's place in the world, much of what he said applies to our domestic political life. We are tired of responsibilities abroad and withered by domestic discord. Will says, "There are those that advocate a kind of tribal nationalism, an ethnonationalism suited for what these advocates call a 'Caucasian Christian nation'. Such persons are adversaries to universal natural rights. More importantly, the Left seeks to change America into a Baltic polyglot of tribes each defined by subjugation to universal "white privilege". They see no limits to government. They seek to get rid of political things like the just consent of the governed and equality of all under the law. We will lose our nationhood and our philosophy of forming a more perfect union unless we work tirelessly to make permanent the promises of our founding documents real and present to all in our nation. Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness (not equality of outcome) is the inalienable property of all humans regardless of origin or choice. That and only that must be the guiding star in our actions of, by, and for our people. No rest. Not now, not ever.

1. Americans will consume more than 16 million jelly beans.
2. Giving eggs is a symbol of "Rebirth" in many cultures.
3. The term Easter gets its name from Eastre, the Anglo-Saxon goddess who symbolizes the hare and the egg.
4. American will spend $1.9 billion on Easter candy, and Milk Chocolate is the favorite flavor.
5. In the United States only 12 of the 50 states recognize Good Friday as a holiday.
