PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

PRESIDENT
SUE REYNOLDS

GREETINGS Fellow Republicans:

I have been uplifted and encouraged by the program at our recent luncheon and attending a Graham Ledger speech Friday. It's an honor to be a Republican and stand for strong values, for life, for truth and for liberty.

At our May luncheon, we were fortunate to have five of the previous presidents of CRWF in attendance. We were blessed to have Betty Hartman, our first president of the club (1953-54), deliver her remarks of encouragement and wisdom. In February, 2021, Betty celebrated her 100th birthday. Kaye Feller, who served in 2016-2017, came from Arizona. She shared an update of the events related to the very important Arizona audit. When Kaye was in our club she always said something like if you want to live long and be strong be a Republican woman. After a one year rest from her move, she jumped in to form a Federated Womens club. They started with 22 members and have grown to over 60. Sue Kinsling shared a history of her time with the club and related it to current events. Betty Hendricks, President in 2011, is still actively serving as co-chair of the Ways and Means committee. Joanna Wullschleger served as President in 2008 and is currently our chaplain.

A big part of our mission as a club is to support strong conservative Republican candidates who are running for office. John Barrick joined us to introduce his candidacy for Ventura County District Attorney. He is the type of candidate we are looking to elect in 2022.

Our keynote speaker was Janet Price who is currently the First Vice President (in charge of programs) for CA FRW. She related part of her conservative foundation came from her experience at her first job. She had a boss who hosted weekend retreats for young people at a camp in nearby mountains. The moderator at the camp was Ronald Reagan. It seems it might be very similar to the retreats put on by Young Americas Foundation (YAF). President Reagan helped found this organization and gave his Santa Barbara ranch to them. CRWF offers scholarships to high school students to attend these weekend retreats. Now that their program is operational again, we will be searching out students to send to this program. Cindy Pike is our Scholarship Chair so please ask about nominating students. It is a wonderful way to leave a lasting impression and help mold the minds of young people. We can't allow the militant destructive programming that our school system and media promote to go unchallenged. We must be willing to take on school lessons being taught and propagated by the media.

As my Pastor Rob McCoy says about people who are living in denial and fear, "they aren't the opposition, they are the opportunity." America and especially California, where liberal ideas grow and fester, we need to stand for truth and remember their and our humanity.

Graham Ledger shared his concern for the upcoming recall election of Governor Newsom. Many people have worked very hard to qualify the recall and now is not the time to stop our efforts. Netflix just donated $3 million to Newsom's campaign. The second part that Graham mentioned is we have too many candidates running to replace Newsom. One thing to consider is to request that the California GOP move forward with selecting a candidate to endorse so that we can present a united front for our efforts. Without telling the California GOP who they should endorse, I think we should have a campaign to let them know that we want them to do this and soon. It's always better to be for something and not just against something. We need T-shirts, signs in yards, and knocking on doors to get people to vote to recall the Governor. We need to remind people why we want him recalled. The list of reasons is long, but here are a few:

1. Increased homelessness
2. Open border policies
3. Releasing felons
4. Closing churches and places of worship
5. Keeping schools closed
6. Violating policies he wants us to endure
7. Destroying honest elections
8. Paying unemployment to prisoners
9. Extreme lockdowns with increased suicides, increased spouse and child abuse
10. Support for more taxes and government control

Whatever we do we must stand up to the tyrants and be silent no more. The most immediate challenge is to remove Newsom from office. We need to send a loud and emphatic message that we aren't going to accept socialism or the taking of our freedoms.

AMERICANISM

CHAIR
GINNY BRYCE

WHAT IS CRITICAL RACE THEORY (CRT)?

CRT's main beliefs are:

1. You are not a person. You are only your race, and you will be judged by your race. Race is always primary over other victimization categories, i.e. gender, etc.
2. Justice is about equal rights, but social justice, or equity, is about equal outcomes. Only social justice matters, justice does not. To achieve equal outcomes, forget equal rights. Public struggle sessions in schools are sometimes called courageous conversations.
3. All unequal outcomes by race -- inequity for short -- are the result of racial oppression.
4. All Blacks are oppressed, and all Whites are oppressors. This is systemic: never ask whether oppression occurred, only how it occurred. Everyone and everything White is complicit. It requires participants to confess their complicity in a system of White supremacy, undo their Whiteness, be less White, and become accountable to Blacks in their every thought.
5. If you are White and won't admit you are racist, you are racist by implicit bias. To reduce implicit bias, you must self-criticize, confess to privilege, apologize to the oppressed race.

6. Whiteness is belief in, among others: achievement, delayed gratification, progress, schedules and deadlines, meritocracy, race-blindness, the written word, facts and objectivity (they deny lived experience), logic and reason (they deny empathy), mathematics and science (until they are de-colonized and humanized).

7. CRT suppresses dissent with cancel culture: publications withdrawn, college admissions rescinded, online presence wiped out, business relationships ended, jobs terminated.

We Have to Start Fighting Back!

We need to recognize CRT through its fraudulent packaging, call it out, resist. Parents need to watch for CRT in schools, talk to each other, and organize.

"We need to recognize CRT through its fraudulent packaging, call it out, resist. Parents need to watch for CRT in schools, talk to each other, and organize. Parents need to speak with their kids to anti-indoctrinate (or un-doctrinate) them at home."

Parents need to speak with their kids to anti-indoctrinate (or un-doctrinate) them at home. This needs to start early, because CRT indoctrination also starts early. Don't trust schools and teachers blindly.

On the political front, President Trump issued an executive order to ban CRT indoctrination at the Federal level. President Biden rescinded that order upon taking office, so our best hopes now rest with the states, several of which have proposals to ban CRT indoctrination. We must vote to elect state legislators who represent our views on CRT!

On the legal front, several CRT lawsuits have been filed, relating to freedom of speech, compelled speech, and hostile work environment. Parents should keep abreast of these cases and seek counsel when appropriate -- the brave people filing these lawsuits are regular folks just like us!

The Marxist class struggle is replaced by race struggle and traumatizes white kids.

PAM LINDEMAN LEGISLATION

LEGISLATION COMMITTEE MEMBERS NEEDED

New Legislation Activism Committee forming. As announced at our April General Meeting/Luncheon and in the May 2021 Newsletter, our Club has recognized the need to appoint a Special committee Chair, Legislation Activism Chair, and Committee to respond to new legislation being proposed or voted on either at the State or National level. As the Club's Legislation Chair, I was appointed to this position. Need your help. I am in the process of developing a team of people who will email or phone the appropriate legislators with the request to either vote for or vote against measures.

Making it simple: I will provide you, via email, the bill identification, a brief explanation of the bill/legislation, and a list of the appropriate people (State or National level, Republican or Democrat) to be contacted, and provide you with their phone number and email address. I will also provide you with "verbiage" for phone calls and emails and whether you are requesting that they either vote for or vote against the measure.

What follows is an example of a recent Email alert that was sent to all Camarillo RWF Members, asking them to make phone calls regarding SB663:

Although SB663 cleared the State Senate elections and Constitutional Amendments Committee, we still have time to make calls to the next Senate Committee who will be reviewing SB663. Calls need to be made to the members of the State Senate Judiciary Committee, even if they are a Democrat . . . NOW.

Just call their office and advise them that you are opposed to SB663, as it is an attack on your Constitutional rights, specifically your voter privacy. (We do not require ID in California to vote, to protect privacy, so how can the Senator pass a Bill that is a clear infringement of voter privacy?)

- Senator Thomas Umberg (Chair) (D) 714-558-3785
- Senator Andreas Borgeas (Vice Chair) (R) 559-243-8580
- Senator Anna M. Caballero (D) 831-769-8040
- Senator Maria Elena Durazo (D) 213-483-9300
- Senator Lena A. Gonzalez (D) 562-256-7921
- Senator Robert M. Hertzberg (D) 818-901-5588
- Senator Brian W. Jones (R) 619-596-3136

Even if you feel it makes little impact, it is important to call the Democratic officials, because they keep track of who is calling in, and when we do not connect with them, they think Republicans do not care!

It takes a village. Please contact Pam Lindeman at (805) 443-8545 or via email at plindeman51@gmail.com to become part of our Legislative Activism Team. Your help is appreciated.

Please make sure that you read the Email blasts sent by the Club entitled "Legislation Action Alert(s)" regarding the need to make phone calls to CA Senators AND Committee Members.

A PROGRESSIVE'S DREAM

BY NICHOLAS
BEDNARSKI

In trying to stem the high tide of progressive socialism in our community, we need to learn to think like those with whom we disagree.

What follows is a foreseeable consequence of observable trends in the Democratic People's Republic of Kalifornia.....

Our governor has rightly proclaimed housing to be a basic human right. Given his success as Mayor of San Francisco in recognizing health care as such a right and providing it not indirectly through provision of health insurance but by establishing a network of free city health clinics, he has declared that Kalifornia does not having a housing shortage, but a shortage of housing occupation. The majority of homes controlled by housing supremacists have unoccupied bedrooms. These could be used immediately by the homeless and housing disadvantaged in our nation-state. Given the state's new laws and regulations allowing the state to supersede local zoning laws, the state can declare single family home zones to be multifamily, based on the number of available bedrooms as established by local and state taxation records. A contingent use regulation would then allow housing supremacists to continue owning their home/townhomes/condos or rental apartments only with fully occupied bedrooms; one or two additional persons could be housed depending on established standards for cubic feet of living space required. To promote social justice and establish equity, those from the bottom of the socio-economic ladder would be housed in the most expensive homes, less disadvantaged persons graduating downward in housing to the upper and middle classes as required.

Obviously some payment for rise in utility costs, etc. would be required. This can be easily handled via the recently proposed CalBank, a new central bank for the nation-state of Kalifornia that will provide banking services to the disadvantaged who cannot afford regular banking fees, etc. CalBank would make a monthly payout to housing supremacists based on the number of those housing disadvantaged once the home's bedrooms were fully occupied as noted above. Payment would be via a new digital currency, Kalifornia BEARS (Bringing Equity Awarding Reparations). These BEARS could then be used to pay state taxes and utility bills. Under such a new system the utilities would become state controlled entities. BEARS could also be issued instead of EBT's or welfare cards, and gradually transition to being used to pay workers in a new nation-state system of infrastructure improvement including not only high speed rail but other transportation improvements, buy back of carbon based cars and trucks, buy back of firearms, and funding of state run child care facilities. Anything of social justice to the people of Kalifornia can be funded via private and state use of BEARS. Federal dollars would of course still be available to various levels of government, and through private enterprise payment of the socially privileged who have work in the private economy. Given that DPRK's economy is one of the largest in the world, it is past time for us to assert our proper role in world affairs and join the global march to equity.

Now that's a Progressive idea!

CALIFORNIA JUDICIAL COUNCIL'S ZERO BAIL POLICY AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

BY ELENA MISHKANIAN

Under California law, a person commits the crime of unauthorized entry by entering a residence without permission from the owner or resident. Unauthorized entry is a misdemeanor, punishable by up to six months in jail and a $1,000 fine. Furthermore, it's also a crime to possess lock picks, crowbars, screwdrivers, master keys, spark plug pieces, or any other tool or instrument with the intent to break into a building or vehicle. A person in possession of burglar tools commits a misdemeanor and faces up to six months in jail and a $1,000 fine.

Nevertheless during the pandemic, these rules have changed because incarcerated people got sick and died at a rate unparalleled in the general public. As a result, some ignorant individual state and local policymakers proudly decided to release a large number of people from prison to end mass incarceration. California set a statewide emergency bail policy that reduced bail to $0 for most misdemeanor and some low-level felony offenses, causing California jail populations to drop. Sadly, such steps were followed by consequences that threatened the public safety and aggravated the residents.

Within one week, vehicle theft and vandalism have increased across Ventura County compared to the same time period in 2019. At least 400 people have been arrested yet were released due to the emergency bail policy. At least 34 of those, or about 8.5%, have been rearrested then released from jail. One person was arrested seven times within three weeks. In Los Angeles, on the other hand, property break-ins have skyrocketed while the residents have been furious to see burglars conveniently break into apartment lobbies with simple screwdrivers looking at the security camera knowing no punishment, bail, court, or jail time is expected. Furthermore, in July 2020, the Los Angeles City Council approved a $150 million cut to the LAPD's budget for the next fiscal year. At this time, the LAPD advises the victims and the homeowners to file a police report using the online services. Yet if no firearms were involved in the incident or no one was injured, it does not meet the criteria for online reporting and requires an advanced appointment with the investigator which is almost impossible to make.

However, defunding the police, releasing the felons, zero bail policy, and manufacturing excuses to justify the state's irrational policies have created unrest among the law-abiding citizens and caused property damages more than ever. Relaxing the punishments inherently is known to encourage the minds of the criminals to commit further crimes. In a severe criminal case, the New Year's Eve double fatal hit-and-run with a stolen car by a drunk driver in San Francisco could have been prevented if Chesa Boudin, the District Attorney, wouldn't have released the driver back out on the streets after a 2015 armed robbery. The suspected driver, Troy McAlister, 45, has been out on parole since April 2020.

Officials say he has been arrested multiple times since then, but Boudin never filed any criminal charges against him. Unlike a logical individual, Boudin, a son of lifetime in prison criminal parents who were involved in a robbery and the death of two police officers, doesn't have the capacity to grasp that no society anymore, let alone a parole officer, can rehabilitate a man who by the age of 45 has failed to learn that stealing a car, driving under influence of alcohol, and blood letting of injured people involved in an accident are lawfully prohibited.

Currently, due to the pandemic, the prisons are shut down and the county jails are overwhelmed with arrested criminals. So, the rest of them out there celebrate the low number of police officers along with relaxed rules to casually break into more private properties solely with their almighty screwdrivers. Once again the radical left and its twisted policies have won the idiocracy.

Flag Day...June 14th

June 14 is Flag Day, an annual observance of the Second Continental Congress' official adoption of the stars and stripes in 1777. At the time, they "resolved that the flag of the 13 United States" be represented by 13 alternating red and white stripes and the union by 13 white stars in a blue field.

Flag Day is not a federal holiday but is observed all across the country. The holiday was officially established in 1916 by President Woodrow Wilson, and in 1949 Congress declared June 14 a national holiday.

20 Facts about the American Flag

1. Pennsylvania is the only state that observes Flag Day as a state holiday.
2. The flag has been changed 27 times. The final star, for Hawaii, was added in 1960.
3. The flag is normally flown from sunrise to sunset.
4. The flag should not be flown at night without a light on it.
5. The first time the flag was flown after being adopted was on Aug. 3, 1777 in Rome, New York.
6. The designer of the American flag was Francis Hopkinson, a signer of the the Declaration of Independence as a delegate from New Jersey.
7. Betsy Ross sewed the first American flag.
8. There are six American flags on the moon. Five are standing, but Neil Armstrong's fell over.

9. The flag should not be flown in the rain or inclement weather.

10. After a tragedy or death, the flag is flown at half staff for 30 days. It's called "half staff" on land, and "half mast" on a ship.

11. When your flag is old and has seen better days, it is time to retire it. Old flags should be burned or buried.

12. The Flag Code bans the use of the flag as clothing. That's right, not USA T-Shirts, bandanas or bikinis.

13. If you like to study flags, then you are a Vexillologist!

14. The colors of the flag have meaning. Red stands for hardiness and valor. White symbolizes purity and innocence. Blue represents vigilance, perseverance and justice.

15. An American flag should never touch the floor or the ground.

16. When displayed on a wall or window the blue field should be in the upper left corner.

17. The military folds the flag with 13 folds, each with symbolic meaning.

18. 50 flags fly 24 hours a day around the Washington monument.

19. 95% of U.S. flags are made in the U.S.A.

20. The U.S. flag always flies at the top of a staff above any other flag.

Exciting High Tea

LUNCHEON & FUNDRAISER

INVITE YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS... WEAR YOUR HAT OR FASCINATOR. BID ON THE LIVE & SILENT AUCTIONS June 15, 2021 at the exciting new Spanish Hills Country Club. Enjoy a beautiful English High Tea, savory and sweet, as presented by the new owners and the excellent new chef of Spanish Hills Country Club. Each table will be served a delicious assortment of finger sandwiches, canapés, quiche Lorraine, scones, seasonal berries, whipped cream, lemon bars, brownies, tarts, and cheesecake. There will also be lemonade, coffee, and a variety of teas.

History of Serving High Tea

According to multiple records, high tea began in the early 1800's. Anna Stanhope, the Duchess of Bedford of Queen Victoria's court, did not like the long hours between the noon meal and dinner which was served seven to eight hours later. To curb her appetite and improve her mood, she instructed servants to bring her a small meal served with tea between three and five o'clock. It consisted of a variety of cheeses, fruits, and sandwiches. Soon the duchess shared her secret ritual with other members of the queen's court. Upon returning to her home located in London, Anna invited other ladies to share her afternoon meal.

The practice of high tea gained popularity and spread throughout society.

Come early to bid on a variety of gift baskets, preview the silent auction items, and enjoy the entertainment. The annual CRWF luncheon fundraiser will be celebrating over 100 years of Women's suffrage at our June High Tea luncheon. In honor of the Centennial of the 19th Amendment, suffrage leaders, such as Susan B. Anthony, may be dropping by to chat. Funds raised go towards scholarships for students, our "For the Troops" program, other community outreach programs, and for outstanding speakers at our meetings. The price is $65 for both members and guests. Attendance might be limited depending on health regulations in effect at the time.

MENS MEET UP

BY PAMELA KRAUSZ, 4TH V.P.

The CRWF men started the month off right with a meeting on May 2nd at the home of Christine & Allen Hooper. We would like to thank "Hoop" & Chris for their gracious time, food and drinks they supplied. The event began with the Pledge of Allegiance, then Pamela Krausz welcomed the guests and newest member, Dominic Brocato. She proposed a mission statement for the group to consider, and after a brief discussion the men unanimously passed the vote.

The next business item was an outline of ways to write "Letters to the Editors" of the Acorn and Ventura County Star. The effort will take four to five volunteers to submit regularly (every 30 days) for any effectiveness. We are outnumbered by the liberal articles printed and would like to counter their voices by creating a consistent writing campaign.

Richard Lucas III told us the results of the Camarillo Recall of Susan Santangelo & Shawn Mulchay (City Council members) which ended on April 15th. He was one of the core team leaders that spent tremendous time and effort to gather well over 7,000 Camarillo residents' signatures, through a robust door knocking campaign and having many booth locations around town. Although the recall signatures fell short of the more than 9,000 needed to succeed, he regarded the overall experience as a great success. They were able to bring a strong message to the public's attention that our city, like many in the national news today, is in jeopardy of having its police budget threatened by radical ideology. Defeating Santangelo & Mulchay in the 2022 election will be the focus moving forward.

First-time guest, Sheldon Fraley, a young student at Pepperdine University spoke about the bias towards Conservatives on campus. He has suffered harassment and alienation along with other fellow Conservatives, calling it a kind of cultural Marxism that occurs there. He feels social media support is especially important to go up against these elements in his age group. Many of the students who have a Socialist point of view are living on someone else's money and should be called out for their hypocrisy. He also noted that trade schools and blue-collar jobs need to be pushed more, as the current emphasis on college degrees, with leftist indoctrination, is not serving the country or students well. Sheldon thinks it is incredibly important for us to be very vocal in free speech similar to Adam Carolla. Israel Rodriguez noted that lots of Conservative Alumni can be mobilized and remarked that Pepperdine has a strong Conservative history from its founder. For example, Reagan was on the Board of Regents. Sheldon is the publisher of an online paper called The Pepperdine Beacon that promotes diversity of thought. You can find it at www.PepperdineBeacon.Com. It publishes every two weeks. Sadly, Sheldon feels most of his generation is super far left or apathetic and we must seek to reach the apathetic ones as the far left cannot be converted.

Cole Brocato spoke next on leadership in the home and community, noting that males in the current culture need to be more assertive in teaching personal responsibility to their children. Republicans need to start getting more involved in the fight to keep our conservative values alive and worry less about being polite. Our message is the right one and we should be unapologetic about our beliefs. Cole also announced that he is going to run for the 37th Assembly District but is waiting to file paperwork since the redistricting of our county lines are being redrawn and there is a possibility it could put him in the 44th district. Either way he is excited and ready to launch his campaign soon.

Discussion was had about the current bill in Congress that wants to limit our gun rights and how we should write Congressmembers and Senators to oppose it. Lastly, Israel mentioned that Pamela Krausz lives in Susan Santangelo's district and is considering a run for that City Council seat. He hopes everyone will give her encouragement and support as she contemplates this important decision. The meeting adjourned to socialize and during this time, CRWF gained two new members! Richard Lucas III joined our club along with his wife, Carly. We welcome them both and look forward to continuing these friendships, as we grow our membership and advance Conservative ideals. Please Read All Weekly Emails for the next Men's Meeting announcement (TBD). Then share the info with Republican men you know so they can join in the camaraderie and spirit that unites us all. Interested in hosting?

We would like to hear from you!

Abraham Lincoln loved telling jokes. His favorite material included jokes about his appearance. After being called two-faced, Lincoln said, "If I had two faces, why would I be wearing this one?"

Ulysses S. Grant loved to feel the wind in his beard. As President, he was pulled over for speeding on his horse. He promised to slow down, but less than 24 hours later, he was pulled over again and arrested.

Chester Arthur liked nice things. Once he got to the White House, he decided to have a garage sale. He sold everything from historical hats to past presidents' pants. Then, he found the most expensive interior decorator in the country to spruce up the place: Louis C. Tiffany, a name synonymous with a luxury brand that is still around today.

Benjamin Harrison was the first president to have electricity installed in the White House, but unfortunately, he was so afraid of getting electrocuted that he never touched the light switches.
